729-4006

Sound Off 729-4006 is your personal forum and squawk box. We broadcast your comments on most any subject. To sound your voice, please call 729-4006 after 5 p.m. on weekdays and anytime over the weekend. Or leave a message at our new website at www.micommunity.com. A word to the wise: you must not speak ill of your fellow citizens. Be brief. Be interesting. Otherwise we may edit you.

Norwayne resident asks mayor to upgrade garbage pickups

I would like to ask Mayor Thomas how he would like to have his trash picked up at ten p.m. at night or not be picked up at all?

I live in the Norwayne subdivision and it seems to be the norm. Not only is the trash picked up late, the company that does it has no respect. They throw the trash and complain loudly and often do not clean up their messes.

I have even witnessed one go to the bathroom behind the Salvation Army building on Venoy road.

Something has to be done. Mayor Thomas, please help.

Caller prefers school board candidate Welty to President Moore

I read your Sound Off about Vicki Welty running for school board again this coming June.

At the time she was on the board, I didn't always agree with her, but I have to admit that the quality of the persons serving since her departure and the departure of others has gone totally downhill. I am sick of people who serve on the board just to get elected or appointed to a higher office.

I also read about the current board president's comments about firing anyone she wants to fire. That is despicable and not to mention childish. Robin Moore needs to be replaced and Vicki Welty is the person to replace her. I have no doubt Vicki will win. Since Moore has been on the board, MEAP scores have declined in many of our better schools.

Thanks, Sound Off, for keeping us informed of the people who are "supposed" to serve us.

Mayor couldn't have been snubbed - he wasn't there

I'm calling in response to the Sound Off about the mayor's mommy thinking her little boy was snubbed at the Westland Festival. From what I understand as an employee and as a volunteer, the mayor never even showed up at the festival. He showed up at the parade and left town as usual.

So mommy shouldn't be upset. He wasn't there.

Local country music star 'Casey' Clark dies at 81

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Noted fiddler and country music star Harlen "Casey" Clark - who formerly resided in Belleville and Wayne - died Aug. 21 in Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak.

Born on July 24, 1918 in Soldier (Carter County) Kentucky, Mr. Clark is the father of Evelyn Atkins, general manager of the Romulus News and grandfather of Kristi Stephens, editor of the same newspaper.

Clark began his country music career early at the age of 12, playing the fiddle on radio station WSAZ in Huntington, W.Va.

He later expanded his career opportunities by becoming a respected band leader, promoter and disc jockey.

Clark probably was best known in the Metro-Detroit area for his long-running Lazy Ranch Boys Barn Dance on Mack Avenue in the 1950's.

At that time he hosted such legends as Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs, Roy Acuff, Ernest Tubb, Faron Young, Bill Monroe, Roy Orbison and Minnie Pearl.

Casey Clark

During the next 40 years, he retained his local nightclub circuit following as leader of Casey Clark and Casey's Kids - including his daughter, Evelyn.

"He was a major part of my life," Evelyn said, "since I played drums with his musical group for 35 years."

Clark also was an avid fisherman and hunter, Evelyn said. "He loved to hunt for pheasants, squirrel and rabbits.

Over the years, Casey was given numerous awards including the Michigan Community Music Alliance 'Legend of Country Music' award several years ago.

Casey was the first living person to be inducted into the Michigan County Music Hall of Fame and was cited for his work with USO overseas shows down through the years.

His daughter said the family plans to donate one of his fiddles and other memorabilia to the Hall of Fame.

A memorial service is slated for 7 p.m. Sept. 3 at St. Paul's United Church of Christ, 26550 Cherry Hill Road (corner of Cherry Hill and John Daly) in Dearborn Heights.

At that time many photos of Clark will be on display and top selections of his favorite music will be played.

Golka replaces Jeffrey Royal, who was transferred to become director of Special Services for the Romulus School District.

Royal in turn replaces Mary Kelly, who left the special services unit to accept an elementary school principalship in the Trenton School District.

Golka served as a teacher in the Mount Pleasant School (4th-6th grades) from 1968-73; human relations teacher at the Romulus Junior High from 1973-1976; first grade elementary school teacher in Hale Creek School from 1976-78; language arts at the Junior High from 1978-1982; teacher at

Jeffrey Royal

Hale Creek from 1982-83; and upper grades teacher at Wick Elementary School from 1983-99.

Royal started in the Romulus School District's Head Start program in 1973 and later worked in the Detroit and Inkster school districts.

Royal taught at Wick School's 1st and 3rd grade from 1975-81. She later served as a learning disabled teacher at Hale Creek from 1982-83.

She served in various other positions the next decade and became Hale Creek Learning Center specialist from 1993-96 and became principal at Barth School in 1996.

In another move, Shirley Lamberson has been named supervisor of transportation, replacing Norm McLachlan (who has retired).

Lamberson has served as administrative clerk for the district's maintenance and transportation department from 1974-80; transportation department secretary, 1980-89; accounts payable bookkeeper, from 1989-91 and as head bookkeeper from 1991-99.

She earned a bachelor of business degree from Cleary College in 1990.

Priebe will be Romulus' well site board rep

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Former Taylor Mayor Cameron Priebe was unanimously selected Monday night by the Romulus City Council, as its representative for 10-member Site Review Board on the deepwell issue.

Priebe, who now serves as director of Wayne County Department of Public Services, was recommended by Mayor William Oakley.

Michigan Department of Environmental Quality Director Russell Harding had written to the council on July 30, urging that the city's site board member be named by Sept. 16.

The site review board will include 10 persons, including a non-voting chairperson. Two of the members will be representing the city of Romulus and Wayne County.

Ironically two Taylor representatives - Priebe - and possibly County Commissioner Ed Boike (the county's rep) are expected to fill the two local board seats.

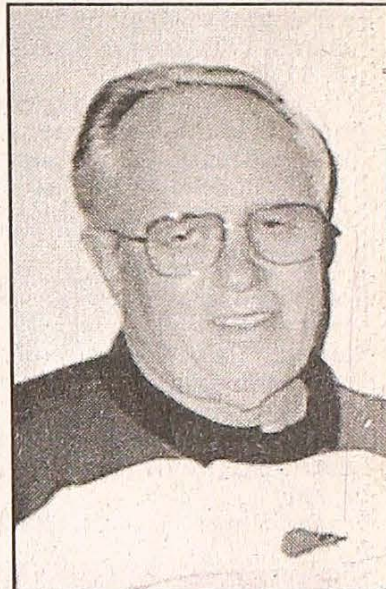

The SRB will then review the potential impact of Environmental Disposal System's deepwell project on the community.

Eight of the SRB members will be selected from a pool of applicants offered by Gov. John Engler.

After an intense series of public sessions, the SRB will then be asked to pass on a recommendation on the well's future to the DEQ.

In addition to Priebe's appointment, the council also approved Oakley requests that his former campaign manager Ronald Hopson be appointed to the Downtown Development authority and Kenneth Choate (husband of City Clerk Linda Choate) be named to the Police, Fire and Safety Commission.

Hopson, who operates his insurance business in downtown Romulus, will replace funeral director Bill Crane, who is stepping down from that position.

Ronald Hopson

In his letter of resignation dated June 9, Crane stated "I do not desire to be reappointed" to the DDA.

He added "I have enjoyed the many improvements that have been accomplished by myself and other members, while serving on this committee for the past 15 years."

Crane then related "I feel it is someone else's turn to come up with innovative ideas and hopefully they will enjoy the fruits of their labors as I have enjoyed mine."

In his letter of application, Hopson said "I would appreciate being considered for an appointment to this board. As a long time businessman in Romulus, I feel that this would be one way of giving back to the community." Hopson's term will expire on July 31, 2003.

Choate was named to replace long time Fire-Police Commissioner Thomas O'Hara, who died recently.

In Choate's letter he stated "I have lived in this community for 37 years and would like to become involved in municipal and civic functions. I believe I have much to offer and as a retiree, I will have the time necessary to devote to such a commission."

Choate's term expires on July 22, 2000.

New sports bar to open in city

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

A new tavern to be known as "O'Tee's Sports Bar and Grill Restaurant" will be opening in Romulus soon.

Antionette M. Grech, 45, of New Boston, told the City Council on Monday that she is co-owner of property formerly known as Smiegel's Bar at 27409 Goddard Road in Romulus (on the southwest corner of Inkster Road and Goddard Road).

According to the filed information, Grech revealed the location is currently undergoing a face-lift and will ultimately have seating for 120 persons.

O'Tee's is purchasing a liquor license from a Detroit tavern, minus its SDM (carry out) coverage.

The council approved the request, subject to final inspections by the city Building and Fire Departments.

Possible snake charges pending

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

A decision on whether to file local ordinance charges against a Romulus apartment dweller, who owns three venomous snakes, are pending, police said.

The possibility of such ordinance violations occurred after a 19-year-old Dearborn Heights woman was bitten by one of the snakes and her arm reportedly became swollen from a reaction to the snake's venom.

Romulus police said the snake owner had signs warning of the poisonous snakes, but the teen still reached into the glass cage despite the warning.

It could take one or more weeks for the needed reports to come back to police, detectives said. Then a decision on whether to file the charge will be reached.

David Ring, evangelist with cerebral palsy, will speak in Canton

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

"I have cerebral palsy. What's your problem?"

That powerful statement that has led thousands to altar calls across the U.S. comes from evangelist David Ring -- who will be speaking at 7 p.m. Sept. 13 at the Calvary Baptist Church of Canton. There is no charge to listen to Ring's challenging message. And the church is located at 43065 Joy Road, Canton.

Ring bluntly but emotionally tells his audience that he was devastated by the early deaths of both his parents and his own life long physical problems.

He explains one night while he was deeply depressed and lying in his bed, he heard God tell him He wanted Ring to become a preacher.

Ring questioned God's request, by stating "you don't understand. People laugh when I speak!"

But Ring -- who was encouraged also by family members -- took up God's challenge in 1971 and today speaks before 200 churches and other groups each year.

He also said many persons told him he would never find a wife because of his physical faults. But today Ring explains in a humorous way he is married and the father of four healthy and energetic children.

Ring also has spoken repeatedly at The Old Time Gospel Hour and according to Pastor Jerry Falwell often pulls large altar calls following his powerful talks.

A series of Ring's sermons have been taped and his written a book entitled Just As I Am.

Ring touches many hurting persons with his unique messages. He even lifted the spirits of former San Francisco Giant pitcher David Dravecky -- shortly after he lost his arm to cancer in 1989.

Dravecky said he and his wife watched Ring on TV

shortly after his amputation and feels Ring is "one of those shining stars who lift your spirits when you hit rock bottom."

For more information call Lee Anne Young at 734-455-0022.

Young said the church hall seating capacity is 1,500 and that Ring's uplifting talk -- that is filled with humor as well as challenges -- is geared to families, those challenged by handicaps of various types and persons facing assorted styles of depression.

Episcopalians, Lutherans move step closer to unity

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

A step toward unity between Evangelical Lutherans and Episcopalians was taken last Thursday as Lutheran leaders voted to overwhelmingly approve a plan that would allow churches of both denominations to share clergy.

While hardly a merger in which one church takes over the other, a vote of 716-317 (69.3%) by Lutheran leaders "makes both denominations stronger for the new millennium" particularly those churches that do not today have a full time pastor, an Episcopal spokesperson said.

Thursday's vote has a strong impact on both denominations that total about eight million Christian members, including about 100,000 in the Metro Detroit area.

A similar vote is expected next year by the Episcopal Church next year -- at that too is expected to be favorable to the partnership plan.

"The vote affirms initiatives already taken here in Detroit,"

"This opens up great possibilities for pooling people and financial resources, particularly in our ministries with the poor and in hospital chaplaincies."

- Bishop Robert Rimbo stated the Right Rev. R. Stewart Wood Jr., bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan.

Experimental shared ministries have already occurred in various Michigan areas, including Wayne State University.

Bishop Robert Rimbo, head of the 73,000 Evangelical Lutherans in southeast Michigan, was enthusiastic about last week's vote.

"This opens up great possibilities for pooling people and financial resources," Rimbo said, "particularly in our ministries with the poor and in hospital chaplaincies."

Ex-Red Wing limo driver jailed again

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Former Detroit Red Wing limo driver Richard Gnida of Westland was sentenced to one year in jail Wednesday after being found guilty of a third drunken driving offense.

Gnida, who most recently had been employed by a tent rental service company, also was ordered to surrender his car and lost his driver's license for five years.

Westland District Court Judge Gail McKnight stated that Gnida apparently didn't understand the significance of his past actions, including the crash that injured three members of the championship Detroit Red Wing hockey team in 1997.

Gnida's most recent arrest came on July 2 after he visited an Inkster topless club and later failed to stop at a traffic sign in Westland.

Gnida reportedly claimed

he had only drank two beers at the club, but his blood alcohol level was 0.12 above the state's legal threshold for drunken driving offenses.

He had been found guilty by a six-member jury on July 30.

Chief Probation Officer Chris Raymond testified that Gnida appears to be in "denial" of his alcohol problems.

He urged McKnight to impose a jail sentence for Gnida rather than a rehabilitation program. The sentence imposed was the maximum allowed in Michigan.

Story of Mayor's 'rescue' of the lead crystal plaque was yawner

I'm calling about the August 16-21 Eyewitness. All I have to say is you must be very desperate for news.

Number two, Ivan Helfman ought to get a life or another newspaper job because you're sending him on things that really aren't very interesting. I don't consider the mayor picking up something from the floor as very interesting.

Get a life, let's get a different newspaper, get different reporters, or get some news.

Caller says dirt dampens downtown streetscape's sharp look

Downtown Wayne sure looks dirty to me! It looked real good after the streetscape, but there's all this sand or dirt on the new sidewalks.

What I want to know is where did all this dirt come from and how come nobody is sweeping it up? I mean who's responsible. Just concerned.

Caller disputes David Cox's tenure on Westland City Council

David Cox, I've looked at your campaign literature. Not only is it a piece of [junk], but you also lied. You don't have three years as a councilman, you have two years and one month.

Caller urges Councilman Glenn Anderson to run for mayor

Anderson, don't waste your time on city council. Run for mayor and get rid of that egotist in office now. We need someone with integrity and contrary to what is there now.

Another caller points out that Durtkas had unkempt premises

I'm calling about the piece in the paper that Al Post had. He should get his facts straight. The Durtkas were not found guilty of holding a garage sale, but they were found guilty of unkempt premises.

Pret-Tea Parties sure to become a local tradition

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

For the second straight year Western Wayne County area mothers and daughters donned their classic style hats and gloves to attend a "Pret-Tea Party" at the Rudgate West subdivision in Romulus.

The mother-daughter teams are urged to dress up in clothes from any era - ranging from the 1800's to modern day garb.

A spokeswoman for the group, Phyllis Anderson, revealed the annual outings give the ladies a chance to shop for that special dress, hat and gloves.

The guests are urged not to go into debt, but rather to use their imaginations and recycle and either sew that dream dress or shop for clothing items at second hand stores. A wide variety of tea pots can be seen at the party.

Even friendly gentlemen attend and add a brisk touch to the parties, Anderson said.

Some unique guests also appeared and entertained the festive gathering including Ruth Meyers, harpist with the Plymouth Symphony and vocalist Tracey Finley, 16, of Romulus, who sang Because You Love Me.

The tea party that is sure to become a local tradition was greatly aided by local business owners from Romulus, Westland and Wayne.

Many thanks also were passed out to Linda Foley, who reserved the party building; and hostesses Phyllis Anderson of Westland, Mary Rutla of Romulus and Bernice Mack of Wayne.

Micah is crowned the winner of 'glamour' pageant crown

By THEOLA JONES
MCN Special Writer

It wasn't exactly a "piece of cake" competing against a bevy of 59 cute, adorable and captivating contestants, however, Micah Hill, twenty-three month-old daughter of Tamara Holt and Michael Hill of Inkster emerged as the winner of the Tiny Tot Division B competitions, sponsored recently by Glamour Pageants, Inc., of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Southfield Civic Center in Southfield.

Only twenty-one months at the time, Micah, with the proficiency, and the confidence of an experienced model, walked across the stage, doffed her sunglasses, waved at the judges, and flashed a big, beautiful smile, before making her exit.

Was it the smile? The wave? Or the sunglasses?

No one but the judges know, but whatever, Micah was declared the winner, and she was presented a certificate, an attractive trophy, pendant, savings bond, and sparkling white banner with gold lettering, declaring her the winner.

Micah has a large number of relatives, including: grandparents, Sheila and Stanley Hill, Rita and Lloyd Holt; great-grandparents: Dora and Stephen Morgan; Virginia and Lloyd Holt; Theola (the writer) and Aaron Jones of Inkster and Thelma Hill of Memphis, Tennessee.

On Aug. 23, 1999, Theresa Buerkle, will celebrate two milestone occasions - her 96th birthday and the 22nd anniversary of residing in the Inkster Twin Towers.

When she moved into the building, it was home to seven hundred other seniors who had relinquished home ownership to live in the beautiful towers.

Buerkle has outlived a large number of the former residents, and many have moved away. At present, only about 25 percent of the residents in the towers are senior citizens.

and useful crocheted items, sweaters, shawls, and bootie and bonnet sets for infants.

"I enjoy crocheting, my grandchildren can always find someone who needs the sets," she said.

The lone survivor of a family of three girls, and three boys, Mrs. Buerkle is a widow. She and her husband, Thomas, had one son, Thomas Jr., three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

A delight to meet, and converse with, she enjoys her family, her church, St. Norbert, and the friends that she has made in Twin Towers.

And let me add by voice to the chorus of voices who have and will say: "Happy Birthday, Mrs. Buerkle!"

D.A.R.E. golf benefit today

Local and area golfers will be out at Inkster Valley Golf Course today taking a swing for prizes and to help the local D.A.R.E. program.

D.A.R.E. is an acronym for Drug Abuse Resistance Program.

All proceeds from the golf benefit will go to the program, according to Inkster Police Officer John Hankins, who is the instructor.

Some 400 children are presently enrolled in the program locally and if you're not able to get out to the golf course and want to help the program, contact officer Hankins at 313/563-9850, extension 202.

Any contribution to the D.A.R.E. program is tax-deductible, officials stress.

Inkster Valley Golf Course is located on Middlebelt Road, about a quarter-mile north of Michigan Avenue.

Maytag miracle man has Romulus roots

Staid, traditional Maytag Co. is setting the appliance industry on its ear. With a new oven and washing machine that is on every homeowner's wish list, the company that once touted the Maytag repairman as its corporate star is now led by a young African-American sports star from Romulus.

Yes, I write, Romulus. Lloyd Ward, who was recently featured on the cover of Business Week, is one of Western Wayne's biggest success stories. His humble beginnings began in a 20 x 20 house with no running water in Romulus. His father taught him through example a work ethic that thrives to this day. While in high school, Ward excelled in the classroom and on the basketball court, and won a full scholarship to Michigan State University.

In MCN's archives we found Ward's name liberally sprinkled through the Romulus Roman's of the late 1960's. MCN Sports Editor Tom Mooradian remembers him to be a great scorer who played with discipline and panache. Ward was not as good as Terry Mills or John Long, NBA stars that went to Romulus fifteen years later, but he was a close second, claims Mooradian.

Ward went on to become the captain of the basketball team at MSU. But it was academics at which he really excelled. Graduating from MSU with honors and a degree in engineering, Ward landed at Proctor and Gamble, and soon made a gradual rise up to corporate ladder.

Although engineering was his major, marketing was clearly his forte. Maytag recognized that knack, and lured him away from Pepsi in 1995. It was a huge risk for Ward, who was leaving cosmopolitan Dallas, where he had been very active in promoting inner-city schools, to Newton, Iowa, where he was told "his kind" wasn't welcome.

That remark which made its way around Newton quickly, spurred the townsfolk into action. The Mayor delivered a personal apology and he and his family were made as comfortable as possible. But it was Ward's new products that made the little town with Maytag as it's largest employer, happy their company had recruited him.

The Neptune washer, which uses far less water than conventional washers, set the industry on its ear. "It's an incredible story," says a manager at Invesco Funds. "The appliance industry for years and years has been a very boring industry. Maytag has really changed that."

Now Ward is gearing up with a slew of new products. The Gemini range has two ovens and costs a whopping $1,400. It went on sale a couple of weeks ago but by all accounts is a huge success. A super fast cooking oven will be introduced for the holiday season. All this has served to drive up Maytag shares nearly 400 percent since Ward has come to Newton.

From a three-room house on a gravel road in rural Romulus, Ward has become the CEO of one of the nation's most recognized businesses. His road to success was not easy. But, he believes, if he can make the journey so can others.

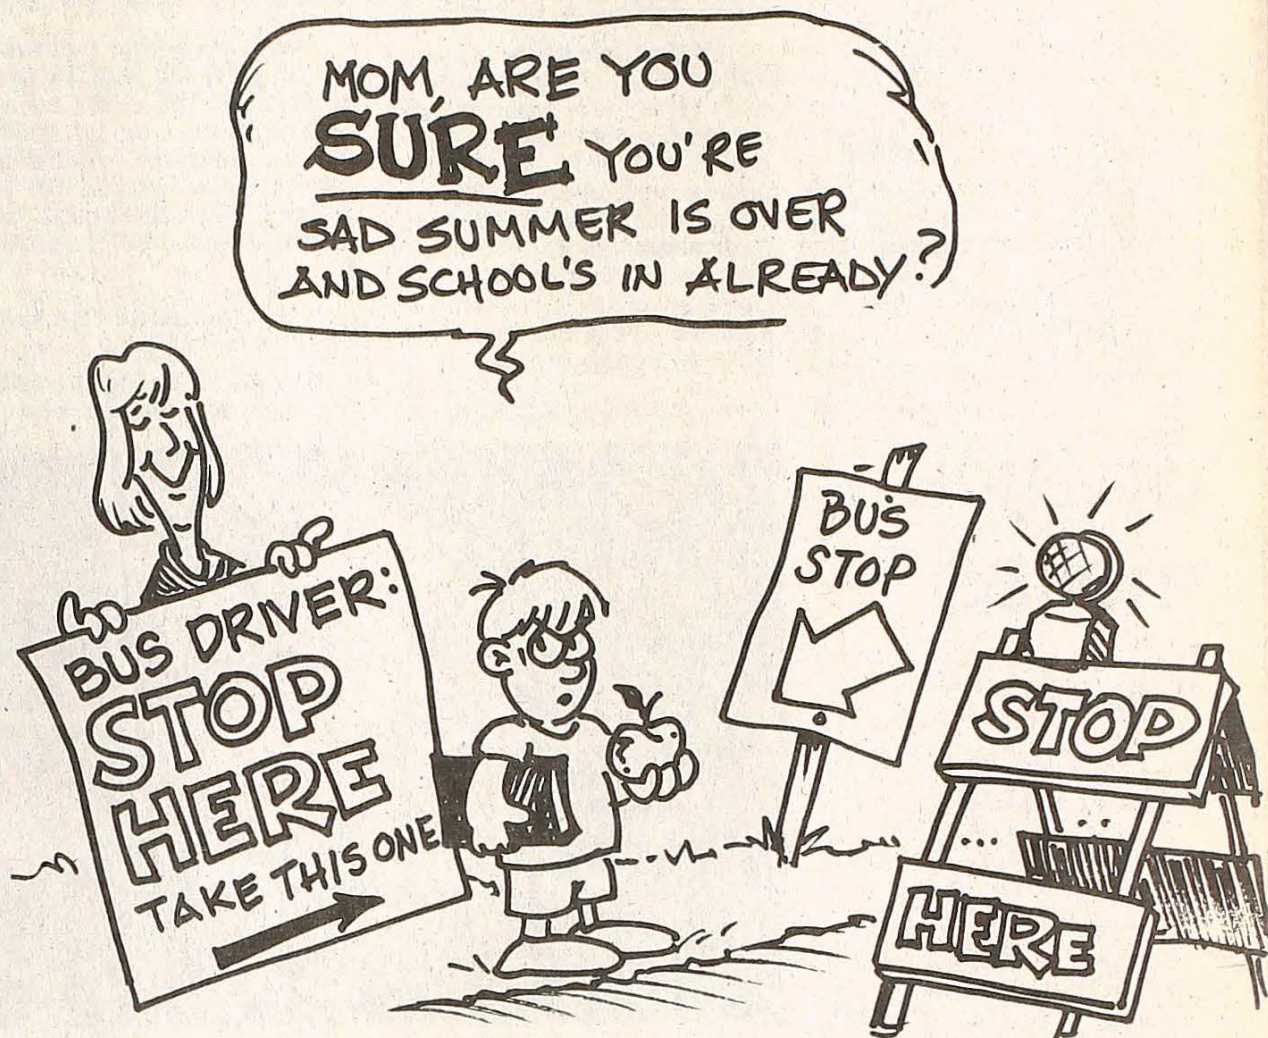

"There are many who are systematically excluded. The oppressed have to overcome the prejudices of society. Knock on the door, pull on the handle, and, if you have to, dismantle the hinge," teaches Ward.

Many of us would do well to follow the advice of this true life Romulus hero.

Boomers cruise Woodward: why can't teens cruise Main St.?

For a while area teens were cruising downtown Plymouth, but police put a stop to it. Detour signs now divert cars away from the center of town.

To me that's child abuse. Life had fewer pleasures greater for most teens than cruising Woodward and its drive-ins during the late fifties and early sixties. The memories of those days remain so potent that hundreds of thousands of aging sixties survivors braved the traffic and returned last weekend.

I can't fathom why our baby boomer leaders refuse to provide their teenage children with the same pleasures that resound in their memories after 30 years.

The closest modern teens have to the old Woodward days is the Dream Cruise, but the Dream Cruise is not the same as American Graffiti-style cruising.

For one thing, while you can cruise at the Dream Cruise, it's better on foot. It took me almost a half hour to turn left onto northbound Woodward from 10 Mile Saturday afternoon. On Woodward traffic varied from a standstill to a crawl.

Things changed once I parked and could watch the show from the street.

With food vendors out, entertainment, and party tents set up (including one by one of Canton and Plymouth's largest residential builders), the street was a genuine celebration and a fantastic festival. As a former New Orleans resident and Mardi Gras veteran, I know a great street festival when I see one. The Dream Cruise was a great street festival. Like at the Mardis Gras, the local swells looked down at the hoi polloi from street-side parties, such as the Oakland County Republicans' party at Little Daddy's Parthenon and Coney Island.

But during the American High (conservative historians' term for the fifties), cruising was not a street festival. It was a mainly boy-girl thing.

Sure greasers sometimes drag raced their souped-up cars late at night, and "industrial arts" students parked their waxed and buffed, channeled and decked, tucked and rolled classic cars at the most visible spots at the Maverick drive-in, but Woodward didn't take off until carloads of suburban kids began hanging out at Woodward's many drive-ins, looking for members of the opposite sex.

In reality, most people didn't cruise to show off their cars (though those that could did), they cruised from drive-in to drive-in looking for action or a tip about a party or a "grasser" - a beer party in a field. A carload of chicks who wasn't satisfied with the guys at the Totem Pole in Royal moved on to Ted's in Bloomfield Township. That was cruising.

Most people had favorite drive-ins with claims to specific parking spaces where they could usually meet their friends. Drive-in parking places were so valued that high school graduates would deed their spaces to friends in their "senior will."

The high point of Woodward's cruising years was probably when the Rolling Stones cut "I Can't Get No Satisfaction," a song you could always hear on somebody's AM radio. Everybody was rocking, taken to a higher level by Bob Seger, who played weekends at the Hideout, a few minutes from Woodward. But opposition to the Vietnam War (really to the draft) changed things.

Teens turned to psychedelic music and drugs and the scene moved south to Plum Street, the Grandee Ballroom, and blind pigs.

Police cracked down on cruising after some cruisers turned violent. Cruisers began fighting cops, especially at Ted's. Finally, armies of west-side frats and east-side greasers fought in Royal Oak.

The drive-ins soon closed and we're left celebrating the cars while remembering, like Debbie or Curt in American Graffiti, the guy in the guy in the '32 Deuce Coupe or the dream gal in the white Thunderbird that made Woodward a reality for a lucky generation and an unattainable dream for their less fortunate descendants.

Thanks a Million

WEEKLY SYNDICATED COLUMN BY PERCY ROSS

Millionaire Percy Ross is known for his philanthropic work. He offers help and encouragement for those in need. He has earned a fortune and a wealth of knowledge during his lifetime and wants to share both. His motto: "He who gives while he lives... also knows where it goes."

Come Tomorrow It Will Belong To Someone Else

Dear Readers: Over the years of writing this column, I'm frequently asked by the media and curious readers, "Why do you give away your money, Mr. Ross?"

The answer is simple. Many years ago I read an article that reminded me that all earthly possessions are ours for only a short period of time.

This week instead of making monetary contributions I'll share with you the reasons I have for distributing my wealth during my lifetime.

For many years I was an auctioneer for companies going out of business and estates representing well-known former owners who died.

I auctioned ordinary and precious objects of art, furniture, cars, trucks, boats, ships, airplanes, relics, real estate, jewelry, etc. I even auctioned a large, rare diamond pendant that once belonged to one of the previous popes of Rome.

I quickly learned how temporary are our possessions and personal wealth.

None of us can take anything with us when we die. Everything we "own" today become possessions of others that live on after us.

Even during the reign of the "good Emperor," Marcus Aurelius, there was a serious time when his nation became sorely pressed, and he asked permission of the Senate to sell imperial treasures in order to buy arms for national protection, saying: "Nothing we have is our own; even the houses we live in belong to you."

We all accumulate treasures that become dear to us, for many a reason, but they are only temporary. They are but loaned to us for our brief enjoyment and enrichment. The time will come when they will belong to others. My only hope, in parting with my own modest possessions and money, is that the recipients will benefit from the experience and practice my philosophy during their lifetimes.

People who boast of ownership always amuse me. They never know how close to losing that ownership they may be! The only true ownership, in which we can take endless pride, is that which arises from useful tasks performed. And the only true satisfaction comes from knowing we have enriched the lives of others. To possess the love and respect of others is a treasure that mere money could never buy. That is the only possession we can take to our graves with us!

I have spent the greater portion of my life accumulating, but in the last 17, I have begun to shed myself of the burden of ownership.

I am only a temporary guest in the beautiful home in which I live. Someday it will belong to someone else. I've converted practically all of my belongings into cash which is easier to share with others who need a helping hand from time to time.

So far I've done pretty well and have enjoyed the satisfaction of knowing I've helped quite a few people, who I hope will remember in turn (by my example), to help others when they can. I also know from the letters I receive that many of my readers, who do not need financial help, write me that they have been prompted to increase their help to others.

On a lighter note, I'll share a letter I recently received. The man wrote: "Since you are giving it all away before you die, and if you believe in reincarnation, who would you like to come back as?"

I replied, "In my lifetime I made certain Mrs. Ross was very well provided for, so if I did believe in reincarnation, I'd sure like to come back as my wife's second husband!"

Thanks to gourmet picnic and silent art helpers

To the Editor:

We would like to extend our thanks to the many persons who helped with the Gourmet Picnic and Silent Art Auction sponsored by the Belleville Area Council for the Arts. We were pleased to be honored by the presentation of the Art Appreciation Award as we are leaving the Board of Directors. We do look forward to continuing activities with the Arts Council in the role of active members.

What made the evening more special for us was the opportunity to listen to the Southern Great Lakes Symphony Orchestra as they played in Van Buren Park. We have helped to produce the evenings of dining and music in the park since they began, but we have usually been obliged to clean-up and put away all the materials of the picnic and auction. Each year it seemed that we just got everything put away as the music ended.

This year many of the members of the Arts Council joined in the clean-up, put-way efforts and made it possible for us to enjoy the symphony program. We wanted the entire community to know how much we appreciated that help. It has been a dream of ours for many years that symphonic orchestra music should be enjoyed in our community. We have been gratified by the increase of these presentations and it was especially sweet to be able to sit back and share the enjoyment with the rest of the crowd as the music wafted through the park on a perfect summer's evening.

Thank you for a beautiful evening.

When are you going to stop voting against the environment?

To the Editor:

In Lansing's Riverfront Park, the Sierra Club issued a challenge to U.S. Senator Spencer Abraham today to start putting his votes on the environment where his greenwashing rhetoric has been. In 1998, Abraham accepted Governor John Engler's appointment as the chief booster of the Clean Michigan Initiative, which put him at the helm of a nearly $3.5 million statewide media campaign. But in Washington, D.C., Abraham has amassed a 7% "lifetime" score with the League of Conservation Voters with vote after vote against the environment.

Because Michigan citizens deserve to know the real story behind the Abraham greenwash, the Sierra Club is airing radio ads on a cross-section of Metro Detroit radio stations this week and next to alert Michiganians to the real Abraham environmental record and to urge them to tell Abraham that they want him to vote to protect our environment. The radio ads are part of the Mackinac Chapter of the Sierra Club's effort to scrub away the Abraham greenwash. "Senator Abraham may be spending his August recess rolling across Michigan on a 27 city bus tour, but you can bet he's not giving people the straight story on what he's really doing in Washington - voting for polluters, against clean water, against our parks and forests, and for polluter welfare," observed Alison Horton, director of the Sierra Club's Michigan chapter.

Michigan families may remember a plaid-shirted Abraham in scenic outdoor locations urging support for the Clean Michigan Initiative in many a television ad in 1998. "Appearances are deceiving," explained Horton, "that plaid-shirted Abraham we saw so often promoting Clean Michigan on TV last year bears no resemblance to the Washington, D.C. Abraham who is working to lay waste to our environmental laws." The Sierra Club is urging people in communities across Michigan to tell Senator Abraham that enough is enough when it comes to voting for polluters and for dirty water and dirty air.

During his first four years in the U.S. Senate, Abraham cast pro-environment votes only 3 out of 42 times. Just days before returning to Michigan for the August Congressional recess, Senator Abraham again had a chance to vote for the environment. Instead, he voted to allow more cyanide dumping on our public lands where it can pollute our streams and rivers. A summary of Abraham's environmental voting record demonstrates that he has voted against the public's right to know about pollution, voted against protecting public health, voted against our parks, forests and wildlife lands, and voted for corporate welfare and special interests. "It's no wonder Abraham wants to hide an environmental record like his," commented Sierra Club's Horton, "the overwhelming majority of people consistently say they want their air and water and open spaces protected and they want their environmental laws enforced."

The Detroit radio ads are part of a program the Sierra Club is running all over the county. The environmental group is using the Congressional recess to tell all Michigan citizens that Senator Abraham is voting against the environment and that Congress will be taking important votes on clean water when they go back to work in September.

The radio ad, script and documentation of the Abraham voting record are available from the Sierra Club office in Lansing at (517) 484-2372. The Sierra Club, the nation's largest grassroots environmental organization, is working to protect our environment for our families and for our future.

Sincerely,
The Sierra Club

Thank you so much for the coverage in the Wayne Eagle on May 13, 1999 concerning the Wayne Business and Professional Women's scholarship program. The story was run on the front page and as a result we had more applicants than ever before. Since we had sent copies to the various schools, those who requested the applications by mail are assumed to be the result of the story in the newspaper.

Our organization is dedicated to promoting women in the workplace; women helping women is the philosophy behind our projects and activities. We thank you and your staff for your cooperation. We will be awarding the scholarship shortly and will send your paper an appropriate news release.

Sincerely yours,
Lois VanStipdonk

Barns's criticism of Westland Festival sounds 'petty'

To the Editor:

In a recent article regarding the Westland Festival, it was stated that Justine Barns, Westland Council Member, criticized the Festival Committee for failure to introduce all the politicians present at the Festival's 1999 Miss Westland Contest. How petty - in my opinion, this sounds like nothing but an ego trip on the part of the councilwoman.

Also in the same article it states that council woman, Sharon Scott, would be glad to help but that the committee had never invited her to participate. Ms. Scott, give me a break. Have you ever heard of the word "volunteer?"

Rich Americans ignore China's influence purchases

To the Editor:

As we listen to our hero in the White House lamenting the evil of guns as instruments which steer demented souls into the path of evil, we cannot but perceive a fermented soul who has pushed the 911 button in order to save the world with our soldiers everywhere. As he continues to stir the cauldron and keeps us occupied in its steamy residuals we find ourselves aghast that he is freeing 16 convicted terrorists and murderers and all they have to do is promise never to be terrorists again. All of this while being supposedly oblivious to what the Chinese are accomplishing in Panama and around the world.

At this point the Chinese have incorporated one of their companies to control both ports of the Panama Canal when it is turned over to Panama. There is now ample evidence that the Panamanian officials have been bribed to the extent that the Chinese Hutchinson Whampoa Company was given the bid without competition. Thus, a beachhead will be established near our shores. On the first day of January 2000 they will control both Ports and eventually the Panamanian government.

Retired Admiral Thomas Moorer, former chairman of the joint chiefs of staff and other officials have warned the Congress and the present administration. We have also been alerted to the fact that the Chinese are developing "choke points" such as this in key areas around the world. No one is listening.

At this juncture, the Chinese are in the driver's seat it

MICHIGAN COMMUNITY NEWSPAPERS

Drag strips offer something for everyone.

High school nationals provide teens with safe racing

By DON NICHOLSON
MCN Special writer

Well, the summer is coming to an end. I hate to even think about winter.

School is starting or already started in some cases. Milan is promoting the Ramchargers Performance High School Nationals coming on September 25. Great way for the students to learn where racing is safe and win some great prizes.

This is a great time for parents and kids to spend the day together. Be prepared for a fun day of racing. There are all different cars from the home grocery hauler to some real nice drag cars.

If you have no experience with racing, this is a great time to learn. Call Milan Dragway for details or check them out at www.milandragway.com.

The Woodward Dream Cruise went off well for another year. Cruisers from all over made it to the area to show off their beautiful cars. Luckily the weather held true and everyone had a great time.

The only problems seemed to be with the advance cruisers showing up from Wednesday on. Being a small business man, I can relate to what all the congestion and traffic jams would do to a small business when they are not planned. The cruise is great for business when it is a controlled organized event. But if you depend on appointments for your customers or customers don't come in because of the traffic, that hurts everyone.

Since my last column when I tried to answer Ben E. Jet's suggestion for a Wayne road cruise, I have had a lot of people talking about a Westland Cruise. I will let everyone know next week what has been said. If anyone else has something to add call me at 724-721-5570 or e-mail me at PrismPhoto@AOL.com.

Well it looks like Tom Kraft is cleaning up at Milan Dragway, winning the August 22 pro class race. Tom's clean plain white '93 Mustang is definitely something to fear. Keep up the good work Tom.

Anyone having any cruise, car show, or racing info, or anyone wanting coverage for your race team or your car builder, please pass it on to me at 724-721-5570 or e-mail me at PrismPhoto@AOL.com.

Children's health and safety fair coming to Trinity

Trinity Episcopal Church will be hosting a health and safety fair for children, parents and anyone who is concerned about children this Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m. at 11575 Belleville Road.

The fair, the inspiration of Parish Nurse Carrie DeJonghe, will bring together several professionals from the community to meet with children and adults. "We're really excited about this," said DeJonghe, a full-time nurse at St. Joe's hospital. "It gives us a chance to reach out to the community and help those most at risk—our kids."

Just some of the professionals and programs to be present that day are: Belleville Police doing Identikit and fingerprinting, the Van Buren Fire Department bringing in the fire safety smoke house and giving kids tips on fire safety, a registered pharmacist who will provide information about medications, immunizations, and vaccinations, and a scout leader who will talk about bicycle safety. There will also be Trykits, wheelchairs and crutches that kids can experiment with to see what is entailed in their use.

"We're also hoping to have the Safe Kids Coalition talking about child car carriers and the Red Cross if they can make it," DeJonghe said. "They have very busy schedules but they said that they'd try to be here. Our hope is to give to concerned parents, grandparents, and all interested adults and kids, information on how to be well, safe and wise. We see this as a very important outreach to the community."

The parish nurse program has been in place at Trinity for more than two years. During that time, health care professionals within the parish have provided annual fly shots, quarterly blood pressure checks, and several informational programs on depression, aging and CPR.

"Thanks to St. Joe's who work with parish nurses in over 30 churches, we can be a very close delivery system for health care and information to the community," Pastor John Hagan said. "This has been a wonderful ministry within our church, and we see all this as the tip of the iceberg. Our hope is to provide both spiritual and physical health to our parish and to the greater community. We are planning several programs in the future that we will make available to everyone in the tri-community area. But the children's health and safety fair is one of the most exciting. We wanted to make this available to families just before the school year starts. Carrie has a real mission as our parish nurse, and she is an invaluable blessing not just to us, but to the people of this area," Hagan concluded.

For more information, call (734) 699-3361. Trinity Episcopal Church is located across the street from Burger King on Belleville Road.

Host families needed for foreign exchange students

ASSE International student exchange programs is currently seeking local families interested in hosting a high school foreign exchange student for the 1999-2000 school year. The students are between the ages of 15 and 18 years old, are well screened and speak English. Each student is very anxious to learn about our country by living as part of an American family and attending the local high school. Students come from the Scandinavian countries, Germany, Italy, France, Brazil, Thailand, Australia, New Zealand, Poland, Japan, the Czech and Slovak republics and the former Soviet Union.

The students are carefully screened in their home countries. Interested families have the opportunity to select the student of their choice from extensive student applications, family photos and biographical essays. The students arrive from their home country shortly before school begins and return at the end of the school year. Each ASSE exchange student is fully insured, brings his or her personal spending money, and shares in the household responsibilities.

Interested hosts should call Deb Richards at (734) 699-3010 or (800) 736-1760.

Campers' competition shows off good character

By IVAN HELFMAN
MCN Staff Writer

Nationwide, young people are being pounded with bad press, collectively charged with rage, conflict, low morals and unacceptable behavior. But on Aug. 10, 1999, more than 40 youth ages 5 to 15, including a Wayne-Westland-area team, turned out to defend their generations' reputation.

"Armed" with bed sheets, paper mache, a refrigerator box, a variety of craft supplies and, of course, their imaginations, day campers from 15 YMCA of Metropolitan Detroit branches explained the importance of a strong values system in the fourth annual YMCA Summer Day Camp Character Development Creativity Contest, hosted and sponsored by Holiday Chevrolet, 30250 Grand River Ave. in Farmington Hills.

The youth created projects depicting caring, honesty, respect and responsibility, interpreting the role these values play in their lives. Character development captains from the YMCA branches represented the work of thousands of their peers as they presented each contest entry to a panel of judges.

"The diversity of our campers presented quite a range of perspectives," said YMCA President and CEO Reid Thebault. "Taking out the garbage is what responsibility meant to one camper, while a parent not leaving their young children home alone was another interpretation."

Each branch walked away as a winner in one category or another. The Wayne-Westland (Westland) branch received the "most unusual" honors, the Birmingham Branch received "most creative" honors, the Dearborn Branch (now merged with the Wayne-Westland Branch) "best portrayal of caring," Downriver Branch (Wyandotte) campers delivered the "best verbal presentation," the Eastside Branch (Detroit) had the "most enthusiastic presentation", the Farmington Branch's contest entry was "most earth friendly," the Huron Valley Branch (Milford) received the "best use of resources," last year's co-champion Lakeshore Branch (St. Clair Shores) received "most colorful" honors, two-time champion Livonia Branch received "best use of technology", the North Oakland (Rochester) received "best portrayal of respect," the South Oakland branch (Royal Oak) received "best portrayal of honesty," the Warren Branch received "most patriotic," and the Western Branch (Detroit) received the "best portrayal of responsibility." The top honor as the "best overall" was presented to the Macomb Branch (Mt. Clemens).

The 1999 contest entries will be displayed in the branches at least through the end of August.

Thebault urges the community to stop by the YMCA branches to see for themselves that YMCA kids have character.

Wayne-Westland YMCA kids prove they can match character with the best.

Rawsonville teachers awarded $89,860 grant

The teachers at Rawsonville Elementary School are receiving training this summer to implement new reading strategies for students in grades Kindergarten through five, thanks to a competitive grant they received just as school ended last year.

The Michigan Department of Education's Comprehensive School Reform Demonstration grant (CSR) will fund the purchase of software, books and training for the two programs that have proven successful nationally in helping students improve reading performance. The programs are called Breakthrough to Literacy and Soar to Success.

Breakthrough to Literacy utilizes computers and specialized software to support the development of reading readiness skills for students in grades K-2.

Soar to Success continues with structured small group lessons that focus on comprehension strategies. This program is designed for students in grades 3-5 who are reading below grade level.

The programs are effective in building the foundations of literacy, i.e. vocabulary and phonics, word recognition skills and comprehension. Both programs are research-based instructional programs and are approved School Reform Models.

The grant was sought as part of Rawsonville's commitment to the comprehensive goal of "Literacy for All," adopted by the Rawsonville School Improvement Team. The CSR grant was written by staff members JoLynn De-Buyscher, Carol Brown, Jane Maehr, and principal Theresa Green. The teacher-writers drew on research generated by all Rawsonville teachers, who worked in teams to develop the proposal. VBPS grant writer, Deb Havens, worked with the teacher-writers to develop the smaller district portion of the grant.

Bob Wylie and daughter Bobbi tool around town in "Ecstasy."

Unique vehicle needs a new home

On almost any nice day for three years, Bob Wylie could be seen driving his unique "Ecstasy" three-wheeled motorcycle through the streets of Belleville. In this half car, half motorcycle vehicle, which seats three people, the driver sits in the middle with a passenger sitting on either side. A "Harley man" most of his life, Wylie had to find a new toy when he had to quit riding his motorcycle due to cancer and chemotherapy.

His Ecstasy, the perfect solution to his new needs, was custom-built in Indiana, one of only 500 ever made.

He rode it to Florida several times to visit his daughter, and often took his children, grandchildren, and friends out for a spin. It offered him one way to successfully fight off his illness for longer than expected.

Wiley passed away last winter, and now his family would like to sell the Ecstasy. They're looking for someone who will enjoy the vehicle as much as Bob did. Interested buyers should call (734) 697-8538.

Football odyssey begins Friday

It's a dawn of a new era as Wayne travels to Romulus for first test

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

With its 1999 opener scheduled for Friday at Romulus, Wayne Memorial will close one chapter of football history and begin another era.

Usually around this time, coach Floyd Carter assembles his staff and troops to take on Adrian for their traditional opening game, but the long-time coach said that the trip was too far a drive, so the staff looked for an opponent in the immediate vicinity.

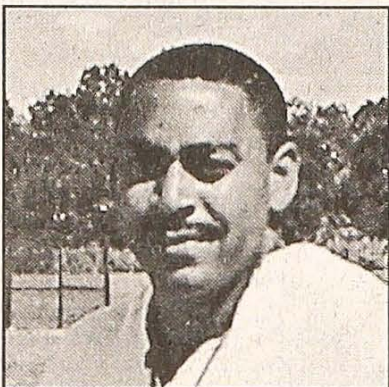

They apparently have found a worthy opponent in Romulus. Romulus posted a perfect 9-0 record in winning the Mega Conference, Gold Division title a year ago, and coach Mark Woodson's Eagles reached the finals of the regional playoffs before they were eliminated.

Carter says the 1999 Romulus team, sans All-State running back Freddie Russell, will be their first opponent of the 1999 campaign.

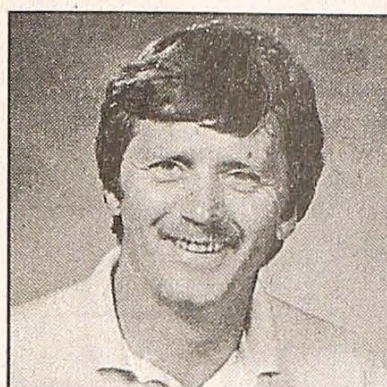

And he says that Woodson's Eagles looked "awesome" in a scrimmage last week against John Glenn.

"I saw them (Romulus) scrimmage against Glenn, and this year's team is as good as last year's," said Carter. "Even if we had all of our kids back - and we don't - we would have our hands full."

Floyd Carter

Romulus is host for the opener between the two local teams. Kickoff is at 7 p.m.

Off to an excellent start a year ago when it won three straight, Wayne later succumbed to injuries and finished 4-5 on the year.

Carter is rebuilding a squad that consists of a hand-full of returnees and the cream-of-the-crop of the talent of a junior varsity squad. Top on the list of returnees is running back Kwame Hampton, a 5-9, 160-pound senior.

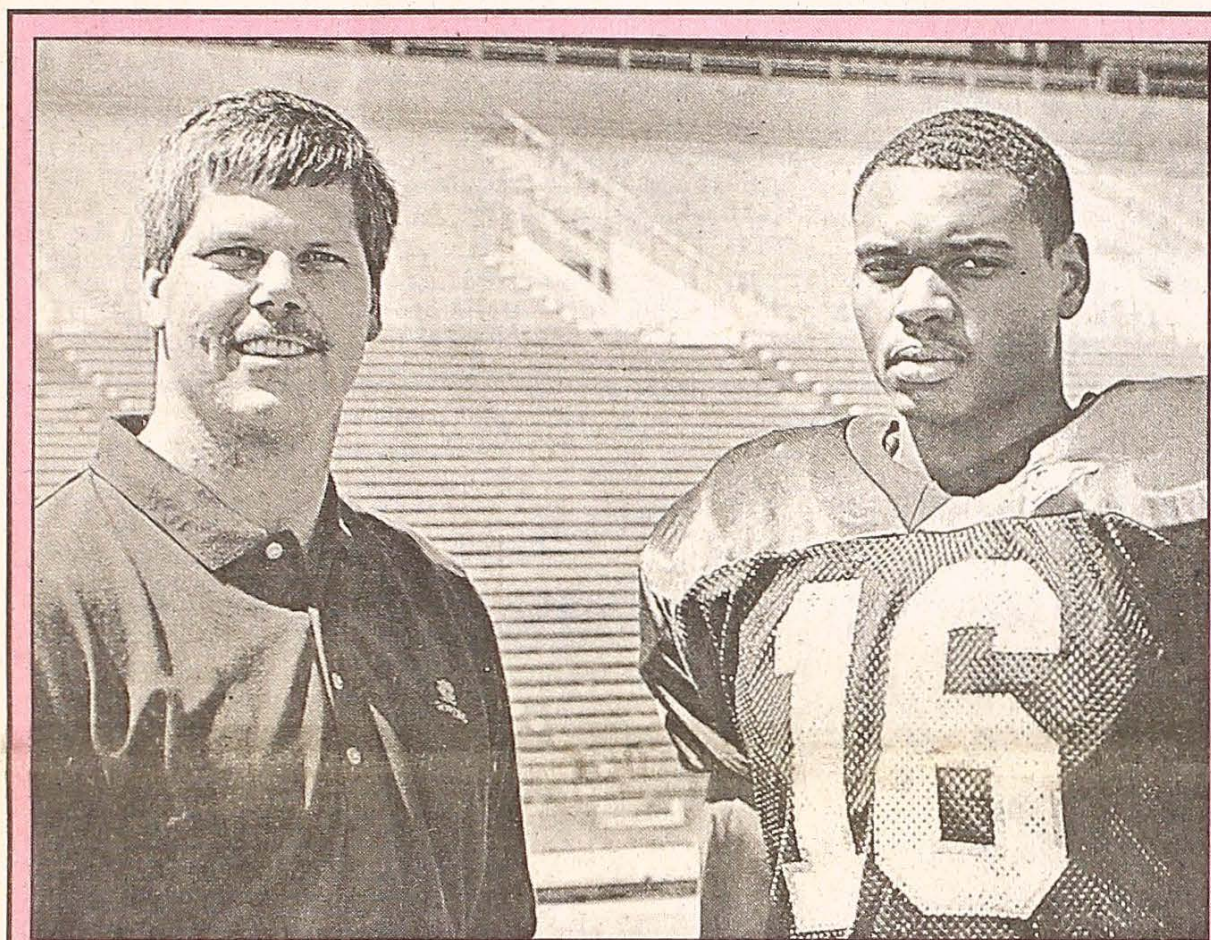

Blessed with great speed, Hampton generated a lot of excitement every time he handled the ball a year ago until an injury sidelined him. He is expected to surpass his TD output this year.

Hampton will be joined by 5-11, 170-pound senior Jermaine Garner, who definitely has the potential to make the Wayne backfield explosive. The Hampton-Garner duo may develop into one of the may best combinations in the area, if the two can avoid injuries.

"Both are exceptional players who we will be relying upon," stressed Carter. "They form the nucleus of our backfield."

Other returning players are 6-1, 244-pound senior tight end Nick Scott, and 6-1, 205-pound senior Mike Shaw.

Means debuts as wide receiver

Former Robichaud High star Roderick Means will be making his debut as a wide receiver for 1999 Central Michigan University's football team when the CMU kicks off the season at 7:30 p.m. on Sept. 2 at home against Eastern Illinois. Means, a sophomore who is 6-3, 192 pounds, is pictured above with assistant CMU coach Brian VanGorder.

Gordon says John Glenn 'has a lot of work to do'

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Westland John Glenn won't be looking from the outside in to see who will be in the Western Lakes, Lakes Division football title race - coach Chuck Gordon says that there are four teams in contention, and his Rockets are among the four.

Gordon also says his Rockets, though they have the potential to win their division, have a lot of work to do before they are ready for the launch pad.

Gordon's conclusions, in part, are based on the team's latest scrimmage, a workout against Romulus.

"We have work to do. No one really looked sharp," says Gordon, who is beginning his 23rd year as head coach at Glenn. "Romulus has another excellent team."

Gordon feels that traditional Western Lakes Conference powers Farmington Hills Harrison and Walled Lake Western are the frontrunners in the Western Division, but believes the Lakes will again be a dogfight between Plymouth-Salem, Livonia Stevenson, Farmington and Glenn.

"What we are hearing is that Farmington is preparing to field one of, if not its best ever team," Gordon said. "But I believe that any one of the four teams have a chance to win the Lakes."

But Gordon would not go out on a limb to say whether the Rockets, an 8-2 team a year ago, would make it into the playoffs this season. According to the newly-adopted Michigan High School Association's rule, if a team wins six of their nine games this year it is automatically eligible for the playoffs.

"We're not looking ahead at anything," Gordon said. "We go week-to-week on what we do, and our first game is Friday, and that's what we are preparing for."

The Westlanders launch the 1999 campaign 7 p.m. on Friday. They will host Detroit Cooley, a team that will put size and speed on the Rocket gridiron.

Glenn will counter will speed of its own. The Rocket backfield returns three-year letterwinner running back Eric Jones, who has impeccable credentials including all-conference, All-Area honors earned during Glenn's 8-2 campaign of a year ago.

Also returning is letterwinner Ryan Rattray, a 5-8, 180-pound senior fullback who could make a big difference in the Glenn backfield.

Gordon has Randy Sinnott working out at the quarterback spot. Randy has the arm to

Lorain cuts Twisters' 4-game winning streak

Streaks are made to be broken, coaches will tell you.

But, unfortunately for the previously undefeated Twisters, they learned firsthand on Saturday what it's like to have a winning streak broken.

Riding the crest of a four-game winning streak into Lorain, Ohio, the Twisters fell flat on offense and suffered a 10-0 setback in the Northern Division of the Lake Shore Semi-Pro Football Conference.

"It was a real disappointment for all of us," said Glenn Brothers, general manager of the Twisters, after the club's first loss of the season. "We had opportunities. We just couldn't cash in on them."

It was a real disappointment for all of us.
- Glenn Brothers

The two bitter football rivals fought to a standstill for three periods before Lorain exploded for 10 unanswered points in the final frame.

The Steelmen executed 33 plays through the first 52 minutes of the game without mounting a serious threat. However, with eight minutes left to the final whistle, the Steelmen managed to complete a 56-yard touchdown pass on a broken play that involved Twister defensive back Ron Andrews who lost his footing during the pass coverage.

The point-after was good, and the Steelmen were up 7-0.

On the ensuing kickoff, Twister running back Billy Starr coughed up the ball after a hit and the officials awarded the recovered fumble to the Steelman on the Twisters' 27-yard line, despite an unsuccessful protest by the Twister's coaching staff who argued that "the ground had caused the fumble and not the tackle."

Lorain was awarded possession deep in took Twister territory.

Little Bill's Trophies unleashed its hitting power in the championship round of the Blue Division playoffs to humble Red Apple, 13-5, to capture the 1999 version of the Wayne Parks and Recreation men's softball title.

Red Apple was forced to settle for the runners-up trophy.

The victory over their rivals culminated a perfect 14-0 season for the champs who have not lost a game in the division over the past two years.

The Blue Division teams included Dew Drop Inn, which finished 9-5 on the year; Jack Demmer Ford (7-7) and W.F.M.C. (4-10).

In the meantime, the Red Division title went to a Wear Master Muffler team which boasted a record of 11-3. Other Red Division teams included Johnny B's (8-6), Red Apple (8-6) and Big Dogs (6-8).

On Friday, Que's Sports edged Drake Lounge 8-6 to claim the Friday Night Men's Softball League championship.

Final standings in the league are as follows: Que's Sports posted a 14-2 record, followed by Drake Lounge (10-6); Lyskawa (8-7), Total Dimension (8-7), W.U.J.A. (4-11) and A.P.C. (2-13).

Recreation officials say the season "was a great one" and that they are looking forward to an even greater season in the year 2000.

Punt, Pass & Kick dates are set

It's time to sign up for the 1999 Punt, Pass & Kick competitions.

Registration will be accepted by the Wayne Parks and Recreation Department on Sept. 19 at the Wayne Community Center.

The program, opened to boys and girls, ages 8 to 15, will be staged beginning at 4 p.m. on Sept. 22 at Anderson Field, No. 1, adjacent to the Wayne Community Center.

The center is located at Howe and Annapolis roads.

For more information about the PP&K program in the city of Wayne please contact Steve Winkelman at 734/721-7400.

Parents of children residing in Westland, Belleville, Van Buren, Romulus, Sumpter and Canton who are planning to enter their children in the annual competitions are urged to contact the recreation departments in their cities to learn when their communities will conduct the contest.

A born-again Belleville depends on youth corps

LaPointe says Mega Red is loaded with football talent

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

A born-again Belleville High football program will depend solely on how quickly a new generation of varsity players matures.

That's the gospel, according to coach Bob LaPointe.

With huge gaps in their offense and defense alignments, LaPointe revealed that his 1999 team will "be less experienced and smaller than his previous teams." His previous teams, incidentally, were among the best in the area and in the Mega Conference.

"We have four or five returning regulars," says LaPointe as he prepares the Tigers for their Saturday opener at Fraser High School, a Macomb Area Conference representative. "We're young, and with that said, our players will have to mature fast if we are to be competitive in our conference."

Belleville returns to the top bracket, the Red Division of the three tier-Mega Conference where a year ago they struggled after injuries took their toll.

The 1998 title race ended in a three-way tie for first place: Monroe, Dearborn-Fordson and Dearborn High shared the championship. Monroe and Fordson again will be the teams to beat in the division this year, LaPointe is convinced.

"Those two schools have most of their kids back," said LaPointe. "But I also look for Dearborn to be in there somewhere."

LaPointe said the only way the Tigers can be a factor is "if we find people who can dedicate themselves to get the job done and avoid the injury bug."

LaPointe does have in the 1999 lineup one of the premier quarterbacks in the area in senior Kevin Harrison. Harrison, who has a strong throwing arm, switched off the signal-calling duties with C. J. Grantham. (Grantham will be attending Eastern Michigan University this fall on a full-ride basketball scholarship.)

The Tigers also have talent in sophomore Antoine Jordan, a 6-2, 195-pound tight end who will also see duty as an outside linebacker. Jordan also happens to be the first player in recent years to break into the Tiger starting football lineup as a freshman.

Needless to say, LaPointe and Co. are expecting "great things from this exceptional talent."

Jesse Meston, Willie Johnson, David Walton and Jonathan Meadows are other notables who are back in the Tiger lineup.

Meston is a 5-10, 175-pound senior who will play both ways. He is a wide receiver and will join Jordan in the linebackers' corps.

Johnson is an elusive running back, whose 5-11, 180-pound frame is built for speed, while senior Walton is a 6-1, 310-pound (and that's not a typo) tackle who will anchor the defensive line.

Meadows, also a intimidat- ing 270-pound, 6-2 senior, will be on the line as a two-way tackle. With Meadows, line of experience ends.

Bob LaPointe

District baseball champs

Gordon

make the Rockets' offense multi-dimensional, but he is an unknown factor yet to be tested under fire. With Jones as one target and 5-11, 160-pound senior split end Dan Smitherman as another, the Rocket QB should be able to get the job done. Glenn has a pair of solid tight ends in David Lewandowski, a 6-2, 230-pound senior, and Ben Harris, who stands 6-4 and is 250-pounds. (You don't have to ask where the beef is). Glenn has it on the line.

LaPointe

"We had a decent junior varsity squad a year ago, and we're taking a close look at all possible candidates," LaPointe said. Among the better looking candidates are fullback Jacob Wilkerson, who is 5-11, 180-pounds. He will take over as the middle linebacker on defense. Running back Jarvis Mosley, a 5-10, 180-pound athlete who saw action on the junior varsity, along with Peter Belyk and Jason Johnson have looked good in practice and scrimmages. LaPointe has Justin Erickson at center with Norris Herron as his backup. Then, 6-1, 225-pound Raymond Burton is ready to go as an offensive tackle. "We are not big," said LaPointe, but the physical stats, of the returning lettermen, appear to contradict the coach's statement. "If we can avoid those injuries that hit us early in the season a year ago, I feel we can be competitive." LaPointe and staff have to win six of their scheduled nine games if the Tigers are to qualify for the state playoffs. That's the new 6-3 rule that the Michigan High School Athletic Association adopted as a format for the playoffs. LaPointe and his staff: Ernie Krumm, the inside linebackers, tackles and tight end coach; Wes Wishart, the offensive guards; center and defensive line coach; Sam Villa Jr., the offensive back coach, may be hard-pressed to reach that goal. In the conference alone, the Tigers will face the powers to be in Fordson, Monroe, Dearborn - three teams the Tigers will face as underdogs. The Tigers should be able to play on with Wayne Memorial, which is also rebuilding (See related story), Lincoln Park and Ypsilanti. So Saturday's opener at Fraser looms as a "crucial" game and that's the only the opener. A Tiger loss would put an anchor around their neck and could even bury their playoff hopes. Kickoff is 1:30 p.m.

Odyssey

Scott was among the best in the league and Shaw brings three years of experience to the offensive line. "We have players who saw limited action a year ago, and these kids will have to step in and up to take responsibility of making us a competitive team," stressed Carter. To make the backfield work, Carter is also looking at junior Matt Patterson, a 5-11, 170-pound versatile athlete as the next starting quarterback. Patterson's speed and arm give him an edge over any other candidate. Then, at fullback, Carter is looking at Willie Perryman, a 6-2, 215-pound multi-talented player to get the job done. Perryman also will be the team's kicker. Last year, he booted a pair of field goals that lifted Wayne to its opening day victory over Adrian. Wide receiver Matt Ledesoma is a 5-11, 158-pound senior, who lettered a year ago, but did not get in a lot of playing time. That will be rectified this year. Tackle Jason Harden, 6-2, 240-pounds, and center Ed Heaney, 6-3, 190-pounds, along with senior Nick Harding, a 5-8, 185-pound guard also have plenty of potential. Carter has sophomore Gwinyai Mundi, a 5-9, a solid 218-pounds available for the quick-side guard spot. A scrimmage against Northville and Hartland last week has convinced Carter and staff that the 1999 club could be a team to reckon with. "We did well in the scrimmage," the Wayne coach said. "We made our share of mistakes, but you expect that in scrimmages." Wayne's defense, thanks to its overall speed, also should be improved over its counterpart of a year ago. Gerard James, a senior who is 5-9, 210-pounds, who has very good strength, is being groomed as the nose guard and Shaw, along with Brad Sedik, a 5-10, 260-pound junior, will be at the defensive tackle spots. Thomas Todd (5-9, 195-pound senior) and Chris Williams, (6-0, 185-pound senior) are the defensive ends. The linebackers will line up with Perryman and sophomore Clifton Edwards, 5-9, 180-pounds, at the outside; Scott Whelan, a 5-8, 160-pound senior has the strong safety job, and the free halfback is Hampton. The strong-side halfback's responsibility is assigned to Garner, and also in the secondary on the wide-side will be Donnell Perry, who checks in at 6-0, 160-pounds. Carter and staff, which include two former John Glenn stars - Matt Howton and Bob Eisiminger. He also has assistant coaches Bob Keller, Charlie Reynolds, David Simpson, James Colainne and Bryan Karol available. The staff will have their assignments cut out for them as Mega Conference Red Division again has a concentrated wealth of talent specifically in teams like the defending tri-champs Monroe, Fordson and Dearborn. If Wayne is to be considered a playoff candidate, it will have to get off to a fast start. Unfortunately, that start may be slowed down by a team like Romulus, who many consider to have the premier team in the area again this year.

We made our share of mistakes, but you expect that in scrimmages.
- Floyd Carter

Twisters

Three plays later with Lorain faced with a fourth-and-20 situation, the hosts decided to go for the three-pointer and the field goal was good from 47-yard out. The impotent Twister offense failed to generate any response and the 10-0 setback was tacked to the Twisters' record. The loss, however, did not change the North Division standings. The Twisters' 4-1 record remains the best in the division. Brothers and his Twisters will be coming home for a weekend engagement with another Ohio team. This time they will take on the Lima Thunder in a game scheduled for 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at the Academy of Detroit (see Cherry Hill High School).

Students end summer motivated to move

By IVAN HELFMAN
MCN Staff Writer

Westland students were motivated for the new school year by Ron Bachman.

The children, parents, administrators, and YMCA campers who listened to him at the Livonia YMCA Day Camp were left in awe.

Ron Bachman, 42, was born with a congenital birth defect, resulting in a double amputation at age four. He has overcome his handicap and now has a 19-year-old daughter, an autobiographical film and the admiration of thousands, not to mention a successful speaking career.

Due in part to his ability to help others realize the power of believing in themselves, Bachman has spoken to more than 100,000 elementary, junior high and high school students, community leaders and civic organizations since January.

It is no wonder Crestwood Dodge owner Rob Robbins, who sponsors Bachman's motivational speeches, beams with pride whenever Bachman's name is mentioned.

"Ron has had such an impact on the people that he's talked to so far, including the kids at the Livonia YMCA," said Robbins. "He makes them laugh, he takes the kids for scooter rides, and he simply relates to people. He is one of the most remarkable and courageous individuals I have ever met. It is a pleasure for the Southeast Michigan Dodge Dealers to have the opportunity to work with him."

Through his unique sponsorship by the Association, the only program like it in the United States, Bachman will continue to visit schools, businesses and community groups throughout Southeast Michigan through December.

Many would claim that Bachman's life has been anything but regular. His incredible life experiences made him the subject of a 1998 award winning independent film produced and directed by former TV producer Kathy Vander. Entitled "Walk This Way" the 30-minute documentary captures the remarkable story of a man who refused to give himself over to the cards he was dealt at birth. "Walk This Way" has received numerous awards, including the CINE Golden Eagle Award, the Golden Apple Award from the National Educational Media Network, Honors from the National Council on Family Relations, an Indie Award, and a People's Choice Award for documentary films.

"Walk This Way" recently received an invitation to be shown at the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences / UCLA Film Series in February 2000.

Bachman's amazing spirit, enthusiasm, and love of life has inspired, touched, and transformed the thousands of people he has met. In retrospect Ron simply states, "It has been a good thing for me to go to the schools and meet parents, administrators and especially the kids. I get to tell them, 'Hey, look here!' If I can accomplish all of the things in my life that I'm proud of, without legs, just imagine what you can do!"

Roger Hosn, Day Camp coordinator for the Livonia YMCA, couldn't agree more with Robbins. "We are extremely pleased with Ron's presentation to the kids here," Hosn said. "He left an indelible mark in everyone's mind." He continued, "They adored Ron and were really happy just to have the chance to talk to him and get his autograph afterwards. The long line of kids waiting to speak with Ron after his speech was a testament to how impressed and moved every person here today was," Hosn stated.

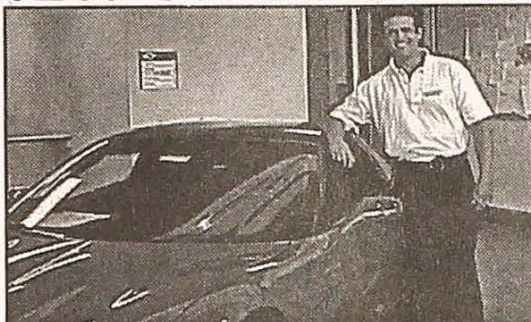

Ironically, Bachman has found a career by reaching out to the children he once avoided. "Kids can be so cruel," said Bachman. "They have a way of pointing and laughing that is completely unnerving in the face of their youth and innocence." After years of being teased and taunted, Bachman decided that the best way to eradicate painful past experiences with adolescents was to get out and do something about it himself. "Parents don't really know what to tell the kids about handicapped people. Honestly, how many adults are completely comfortable around someone who is disabled?" Bachman stated.

"I want people, especially children, to understand that being different doesn't mean being strange or untouchable," Bachman went on to say. "I want them to realize that different is just different, and nothing more. I'm a regular person just like anyone else. I can walk, I can drive, I can do almost anything that anyone else can do. I want them to see that and to understand that." The event, sponsored by

Senior citizen briefs

Based on the success of its first massage offerings by an Annapolis Hospital therapist, the Senior Activities Center of Wayne is making such upper body massages available every third Friday.

The next opportunity will be on Sept. 17. The cost is $15 for a 15 minute massage.

No disrobing is necessary and the massage is given while the senior citizen sits in a chair.

The massage improves circulation, lymphatic flow and reduces muscle spasms and anxiety.

To set an appointment call the center at 721-7460 or stop by the center at 35000 Sims in Wayne.

For the light-hearted comedian Jonathan Stars will appear for one night only on Oct. 8 at the Wayne Senior Activity Center, 35000 Sims in Wayne.

A $15 ticket covers a dinner at 6 p.m. and the show at 7 p.m. Ticket sales will end Sept. 30.

Stars has been highlighted as a singer and comedian and the Las Vegas Sun calls him the "best one man show in the world."

T'ai Chi -- a non impact exercise program -- will begin at 11 a.m. Sept. 14 at the Wayne Senior Activity Center.

Bob Correll, a highly recommended instructor, will offer the one hour classes for 10 week periods at a cost of $40.

Senior Center leaders say participants must pre-register by calling 721-7460.

Correll states the exercise program builds balance and strength without the usual soreness in exercise classes.

Do you remember the old Hudson Building in Detroit? Excerpts of a video made by Gary Glaser on the history of the Hudson Building will be shown at 7 p.m. Sept. 9 at the Wayne Public Library, 3737 S. Wayne Road in Wayne.

The program sponsored by the Wayne Historical Society is open to the public free. Copies of Glaser's video may be purchased at the end of the night's meeting.

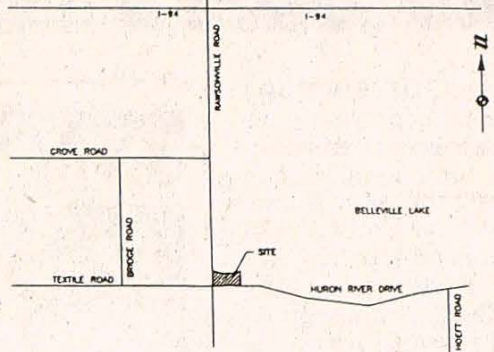

The following month, on Oct. 14, the historical group will offer a program on the Willow Run Airport.

is well known that they paid millions to Clinton and his ilk in order that, at least for a period of time, they look the other way.

We didn't learn anything from Pearl Harbor although Eisenhower tried to warn us of smugness after the Korean War when he stated, "We have won an armistice on a single battlefield, not peace in the world. We may not now relax our guard or cease our quest." We responded by losing a "skirmish" in Vietnam and destroyed our military readiness in its wake.

An affluent and apathetic America which now condones treachery in high places is becoming more and more ripe for the pickings.

Sincerely,
George M. Haddad

Belleville Arts Council extends thanks to all

To the Editor:
What a glorious day in the neighborhood that was enjoyed by all who attended the Belleville Community Band Concert and Ice Cream Social this past Sunday afternoon on the front lawn of Columbia Court Senior's Apartment Complex.

The Belleville Area Council for the Arts was privileged to sponsor this event and was gratified to see so many come to enjoy the music, sweet treats and camaraderie that such an event bestows.

We wish to thank the Community Band members, and director, Paul Michalsen, the staff and residents of Columbia Court, Sandy and Ken Askew, Gloria Henry, Catherine, Doug, Wellman and Courtney Howard, Paul and Betty Ostrowski, and others who pitched in to help.

Thanks to St. Anthony Parish for the loan of some folding chairs for the event and Thanks to the Lord for the beautiful weather.

The Community Band also did a wonderful job on Thursday, August 12th at the Fourth Street Mall, even though audience attendance was not what it should have been that evening, those who came enjoyed their performance tremendously. The Council for the Arts cannot wait for the upcoming series of "Brunches with Back", a generic term given to the musical opportunities that we offer, with the help of the three local community parks and recreation commissions, this fall.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, Sept. 18 at 11:00 a.m. for the first of the series of three, to be held at Van Buren Township hall. All of the three Brunches are free to the public and everyone and their children are welcome to attend these events. Watch the local papers and cable for more details to follow over the next few weeks.

We are excited about bringing these events to our tri-community area and we hope the public shows excitement as well by "coming to the party", so to speak.

If you have questions please feel free to call the Art Council office at 697-8123.

Ben E. Jet praises favorite golden gizmo'

How about this for a great idea. A lighted screw driver!

While they have made lighted screw drivers for many years, most have had the muscle of a regular screwdriver. This Sears Craftsman light attachment is a good solution.

The light slips over a regular screwdriver shaft and clamps on for temporary use. It fits any shaft up to 1/4 inch slotted or #2 Phillips.

The attachment has two bright amber lights that shoot a beam directly on the screw. It runs off a button cell battery, which is provided. The light is small enough so it doesn't get in the way of most jobs.

I remember as a kid my dad yelling at me to hold the light still for him. Very similar to how I yell at my kids to pay attention and keep the light on the head of the screw.

This little attachment will serve you well for working behind a furnace, washing machine or under the hood of your favorite car. Available at all Sears stores and its only $4.99.

The Tommy C band is coming to Wayne Michigan this weekend as part of the Wheel-fest celebration. Tommy, a former member of the Moose and the Sharks band, has had a successful band of his own for many years. The band features Tom Clafetos, the M. C. M. A. drummer of the year and plays the hits of the 50s and 60s.

Also appearing will be The Loving Spoonful. I wonder how many of our readers are old enough to remember the song "What a day for a daydream?" Well, it was a fun song and should be a great festival.

Heard from Gino the Mailman, who now delivers flowers to metro airport. Gino reports the Brownstown festival last week was a great success. The festival featured the Marvaletts, the original band from Inkster Michigan and there song "Please Mr. Postman" one of Ginos favorites.

Sad news, the passing of Jim Reichel. Jim, sometimes known as Cowboy Jim, Gentleman Jim or even Old Man Jim, was a great guy and a friend to all. I think Jim had known most every band and night club in this area.

Readers choose top businesses

Earlier this summer, The Best of Western Wayne survey asked Michigan Community Newspapers readers who rates number one in their books.

For the third year in a row, the full-page questionnaire was published in our six community newspapers, enabling readers in Wayne, Westland, Canton, Romulus, Belleville and Inkster to vote for their favorite businesses--from appliance dealers to doughnut shops to tattoo parlors.

After the stack of responses made their way back to MCN offices, the awesome task of tallying the results ensued. Finally, Publisher Mike Wilcox officially named the businesses who earned the "Best of Western Wayne County" honors.

All types of businesses--old and new, large and small--earned top honors, but one thing many had in common was that they were locally owned.

"There is a definite trend in choosing local business," noted Wilcox, as he counted business after business, with only a handful of the megastores coming out on top.

We at MCN thank those who submitted their entries and congratulate the best business owners and professional people who have found the secret to providing good service, reasonable prices, and friendly attention to their customers, clients and patients.

Readers favor traditions

Best of Western Wayne survey responses show that traditions, especially those that surround funerals, are something that our readers hold in high regard.

"We've served this community since 1927," explains Michael Southam, manager, Cadillac Memorial Gardens West. "It's an integral part of the community, a fixture in the community." Their longevity in the community is important to families who at their greatest time of need, find comfort in tradition.

Southam explains that even though the cemetery has been in Westland for nearly 75 years, there is still plenty of acreage yet undeveloped. And while no one likes to think about their time of passing, now is the time to tend to such matters.

"Preplanning your funeral makes a difficult time so much easier on your survivors," he explains, and Cadillac Memorial Gardens offers many programs and incentives to assist families in making their own funeral arrangements before their time of need. For example, he offers a plan in which one can purchase a plot and receive a second for a family member at no charge.

Further, in the Veteran's Garden, veterans can take advantage of their plot at no charge, with a discount for friends and family members. "It's just something that our company believes in; it's the right thing to do," he says.

Similarly, the civil servant protection plan means that any civil servant killed in the line of duty is given a space, vault and marker at no charge, and if the family has already bought their land at the cemetery, they are reimbursed.

Cadillac Memorial Gardens also offers a child protection program and unemployment protection.

Families making arrangements at the time of need will find the staff at Cadillac Memorial Gardens a comfort. "I have a whole department of staff that helps the family at the time of need, whether they've preplanned or not," Southam explains. "They're very good at helping the families get through a difficult time."

This service includes a funeral follow up program, in which survivors are contacted after the funeral. "We want to make sure they're okay. We want to know if they're eating right and if they need referral to a grief support group. We often have a relationship with our clientele for years and years after we first meet them."

Cadillac Memorial Gardens West offers a complete range of offerings including traditional burial, mausoleums (including a new Chapel of Angels Mausoleum and two Garden Crypt mausoleums), cremation plans, and even a pet cemetery—Garden of our Little Friends—adjacent to the cemetery.

For more information on how Cadillac Memorial Gardens West can assist you and your family in preplanning or at the time of need, call their helpful, supportive staff at (734) 721-7740. They're located at 34224 Ford Road, east of Wildwood, in Westland.

Flooring company voted #1

It's no mystery why a local flooring store came out on top in our Best of Western Wayne reader survey. Independent Carpet One in Wayne has earned the honor in grand style.

Three years ago, when Independent Carpet joined forces with nationwide company Carpet One, Cathy Buchanan said she was excited about the possibilities—the top-of-the-industry training programs and warranties, increased buying power and marketing programs.

But back then, she did not know that she would eventually be able to carry in her store the flooring industry's now exclusive Lees for Living line.

Carpet One bought the Lees brand and name, a name which carries prestige in the flooring business, with a terrific product and the absolute strongest warrantee in the industry.

"No other carpets can claim and follow these warranties," Buchanan says. Lees carries a 25-year, no-exclusion stain warrantee, and 25-year wear, anti-static and installation warranties, a ten-year texture retention warrantee, as well as a 90-day, no-questions-asked replacement option.

How can Lees offer such tremendous warranties? "They use only high-quality branded yarn systems," Buchanan explains. "They are the best of the best."

However, she adds that customers still get the best "bang for their buck. It's not a low-end line, but the price is not high-end, either. You're getting the best carpet for the price."

Buchanan expresses her excitement over the Lees line, saying, "This is the {i}best addition to our store...ever."

The next best addition, she says, is their new line of ceramic flooring.

Independent Carpet One will now feature a brand new 21-foot display of all forms of ceramic, at nearly every use and price point.

"No one else in this area covers ceramic flooring. And neither did we. For us to a full-service, full-product store, we weren't meeting that. That's why this addition is so exciting. We now carry products to meet every flooring need."

Independent Carpet One will carry a full line of offerings in ceramic, including Mexican tile, porcelain tile, stone variations, special patterns, borders, feature strips and wall and counter ceramics.

In addition to the ceramic flooring itself, Independent Carpet One will carry all the necessary accessory items, including matching transition strips and multiple colored grouts.

"Now we can supply to everybody, from end to end in any home,"

Buchanan says.

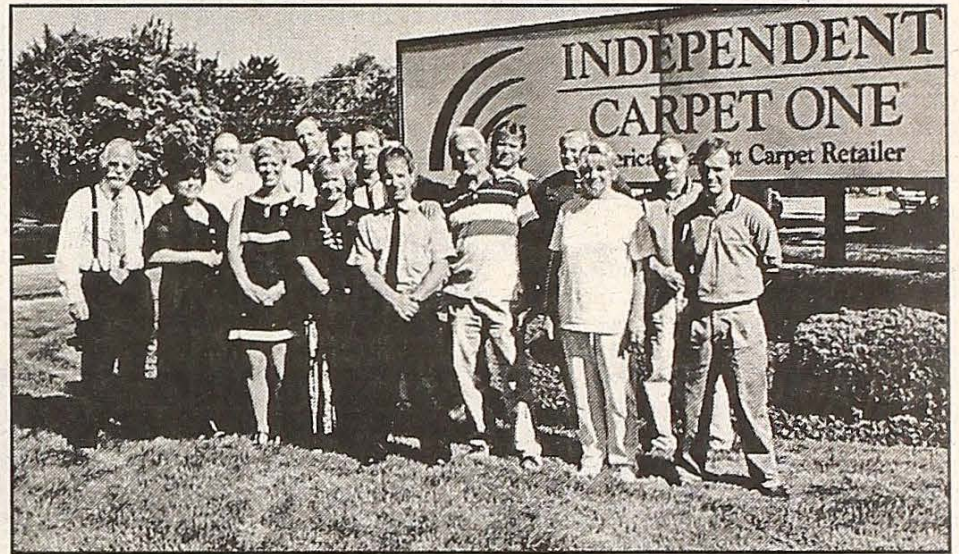

And when you ask her staff about the new additions, expect knowledgeable, complete answers. "We're attending seminars and inviting in guest speakers for training, so our sales people know everything about these products," she says. "That's why Carpet One is the best. They're helping us grow with new products, marketing and training."

These cornerstones of the business means that her customers get the widest variety and the most assistance in selecting the right flooring, as well as completely trained and certified installation technicians.

"We are now the superior store we always thought we'd be. We're no longer a 'Mom and Pop' store," she explains. However, that doesn't mean she didn't learn important lessons from her parents who first open the store decades ago. "We still offer that down-home, family business service," she says.

Readers chose hometown service

If you want to know how a corner hardware store in Wayne manages to successfully battle the "giants" in the business, the answer is simple: service.

"We want customers to have a good experience when they come into the store," said Northside owner Phil Kaplan. "If you ask one of our employees where something is, they'll take you to it, and if you want something that we don't have in stock, we'll order it."

However, with shelves and counters stocked with a huge assortment of merchandise, it is not likely that customers will not be able to find what they want in the store.

"If we don't have, you don't need it," quipped Kaplan.

"We have a bigger selection of items than customers can find at some of the 'giant chains.' Where we stock 10 different makes of circuit breakers, for example, they stock three," he said. "It's the same with other electrical items, plumbing supplies and equipment and tools. We have a bigger selection of items."

Northside not only stocks faucets for new sinks, but also has faucet stems to fit sinks that are 20 or 30 years old.

"We go out of our way to give service. I've made several long distance calls to find a particular item for a customer—even if it has cost me $10 to sell and $11 item," Kaplan said.

"If we don't have it, you don't need it."

PHIL KAPLAN

Customers never have long waits at the cash register, said the store owner.

"If we see more than three people in line, we open another cash register," he said. "We have five check-outs—four in the front and one at the rear of the store. Our employees are first trained as cashiers and then moved into other positions."

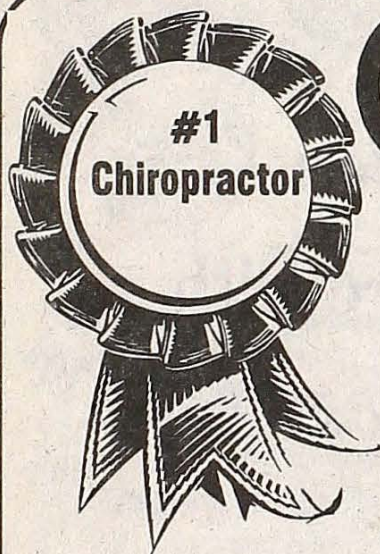

Kaplan said he faces a difficult challenge to sell at the same price as nationwide chains. There are 10 large chains which sell similar items to those at Northside Hardware, and from time to time, each has special sales.

"No one is going to come here to pay more for those items, so we have to sell for the same price or better," Kaplan said. "Where we really do better is service. It's easy to get in and out of here, and you get fast, friendly service."

Some 75 employees work at the store, which is open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sundays.

Top used car lot

MCN readers spoke up loud and clear when they chose their favorite used car dealer, who offers not only terrific cars and trucks, but a second chance in financing.

Those who know the helpless feeling that goes with credit problems also know how difficult it can be to get their credit back on track.

John Raidar, owner, Auto Finance Center in Ypsilanti, says that's where his business excels. "We sell cars, but what we stress is the service we provide," he says. "We help people get financing and them to establish or re-establish credit."

The cars--and there are a lot of them, about 100 on the lot at any time--are sound, and priced fairly. "You can find a car here that costs $1,000, up to $20,000," Raidar says. Once you've found the right vehicle for you, Raidar and company get to work showing you how you can afford it.

"We've got a plan for just about anyone," he explains. Auto Finance Center offers their customers traditional financing, as well as non-traditional financing. Self-employed customers, shoppers who have had bad credit or no credit, and would-be car buyers who have a fixed income, all are helped at Auto Finance Center.

Where Auto Finance Center differs

"We sell cars, but what we stress is the service we provide, We help people get financing and them to establish or re-establish credit."

from other auto dealers who specialize in non-conforming loans, is that customers actually get to rebuild their credit. "This is not a buy here-pay here place, which doesn't report to the credit bureaus. We arrange financing with national lenders, banks and finance companies," Raidar explains. "So when customers pay on time, it shows up on their credit report, and the next car they buy can be a new one, financed at a bank."

Raidar says, as a matter of fact, he just ran into a customer he helped a couple of years ago. She had some poor ratings on her credit report and turned to him to finance a car. She paid it off on time, and just a few weeks ago bought a brand new, $20,000 car, and a bank was glad to finance her.

Still, Auto Finance Center gets plenty of repeat customers. "Some people keep coming here because they're loyal," Raidar explains. "But even more often, they bring their kids or other family members here to help them establish credit, too." Raidar says he just encountered a scenario like this. A few years ago, a woman financed a car through Auto Finance Center after her credit had been damaged because she had cosigned an auto loan for her daughter, and her daughter was remiss in paying her bills.

The mother had such a positive experience with her financing that after she paid her car off, she brought her daughter in to Raidar to get a loan on her own, which will help her also re-establish credit.

While everyone who has had credit problems wants a second chance, some are frightened off by reports of shifty dealers and dishonest financing centers.

"We're squeaky clean and very low-key," explains Raidar. "We have to be because people seem to expect us to be dishonest. We're already under the microscope because some businesses out there are not honest. If a customer felt uncomfortable with us, I'd rather they go somewhere else. I want them to be thrilled with their cars."

And Raidar explains that his customers are thrilled, not just with their cars, and the terms of their loans, but with the respect they are paid when they walk in the door. "We look at the whole person, not just their credit report. Everyone makes mistakes or runs into a few problems. We provide a service for the customers who need us to help them rebuild credit."

The Auto Finance Center is located at 1379 Michigan Avenue in Ypsilanti. Their hours are Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. During the summer, the center is closed on Saturdays, but will reopen after Labor Day from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday. For more information call (734) 482-1222.

Dental group offers complete service, convenience

Where can you receive friendly service, affordable care and a bright smile? The answer is simple, according to MCN readers—Newburgh Heights Dental Group in Westland. Newburgh Heights has been in the business of smiles for over 45 years and continues to joyfully welcome new patients to accommodate their dental needs.

The full-service, 18-room office offers preventative services such as routine exams, cleanings, and x-rays and also restorative services, which include bridgework, crowns, root canals, dentures, and cylinder implants. Newburgh Heights Dental Group also offers orthodontics for both children and adults and teeth whitening at an affordable price. In house labs are used for the majority of denture and crown work, providing convenience and quick service to patients.

The staff consists of a team of registered dental hygienists and certified dental assistants. All are trained in CPR, and with their colorful work attire, are as bright as they are friendly. "We give patients so much TLC that even the kids aren't nervous" says Bias. If the staff's cheerful dispositions don't soothe the more tense patients, Newburgh Heights Dental Group does provide nitrous oxide for added comfort.

The office handles most insurance companies and their flexible hours provide added convenience. Newburgh Heights Dental Group's six doc-

MCN readers won't be hot or cold

Readers told us who keeps them cool and comfortable in the summer and warm and cozy in the winter, when they chose Sharon's Heating and Air Conditioning twice—once as their favorite air conditioning contractor and again as their favorite heating and cooling company.

Sharon Klicker, owner, Sharon's Heating and Air Conditioning has been in the business since 1973. "Our concern is satisfying customers," she says.

This lone woman in a nearly all-male profession, believes in that idea so much that her business recently adopted a motto that says it all: "Your comfort is our business."

Despite the heavy lifting and high roof tops, Klicker says more women should pursue careers in the heating and cooling business. She said it's certainly financially stable, and workers are always in demand. But there's another facet—the instant gratification you get when the day is done and you've finished a job, knowing you've made yet another home more comfortable. For many women who feel their work is never really done, this is a big benefit.

What are the advantages of being a woman in the business? There are a few, Klicker says. "Women seem to like doing business with women," she explains. Very often, in areas that women don't know much about, like heating

to like doing business with women

and cooling systems, people seek out businesses they can trust.

On the surface, Klicker said, a woman in the business appears more trustworthy because women have better listening skills and are often more respectful of other women's time and strive to deliver prompt service.

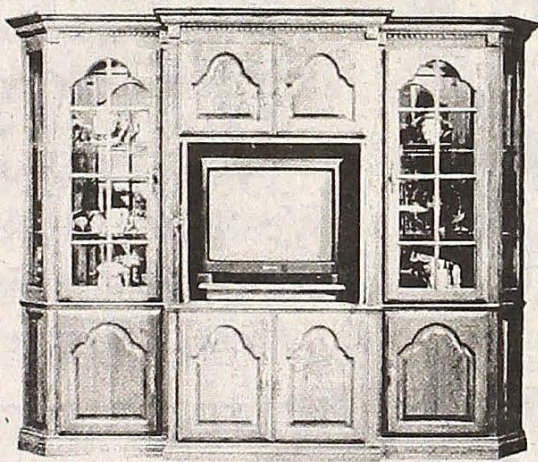

But below the surface, Klicker and her 20 employees earn a customer's trust with reliable, honest service, nearly three decades of experience, and fair prices. Selling and installing all makes and models of heating and cooling systems, Klicker and her well-trained crew aim to please.

For more information, call Sharon's Heating and Air Conditioning at their new location at 31776 Cowan Road in Westland at (734) 425-1415.

Amantea-best eats

Serving Italian and American food for nearly 25 years has undoubtedly made Dominic Porco, owner, Amantea Restaurant, a happy man.

The Westland business owner named his successful Italian eatery after his birthplace in Italy--the small sea-side resort town that he remembers fondly. The serenity and foreign beauty of the city is captured on the walls of his restaurant as a mural of the Italian village lends itself to romantic thoughts of a far away place.

When dining under the dimly lit hues of the restaurant one can't help but feel transported to the city of Amantea after enjoying an authentic meal complete with an appetizer, Caesar salad, manicotti Florentine, and a homemade canolli.

Open seven days a week for dinner beginning at 4 p.m., the restaurant, at 32777 Warren Road, boasts a menu full of variety with an Italian emphasis but not without American favorites such as prime rib, in-house fresh-cut steaks, barbecue ribs, pasta and seafood dishes.

Carry-out orders are welcome and all major credit cards are accepted including American Express and Discover. Banquet facilities are also available for small and large parties.

Parkway voted best office supply

For people who want a good selection of office supplies without being overwhelmed by a huge store, Parkway Office Supply was the best choice in Western Wayne office supplies.

Parkway will fill any special order, usually within one day. Parkway stocks a wide variety of office supplies from pens, paper, computer discs, mouse pads, notebooks, ribbons, paper clips and all types of printer paper to file cabinets, desks, book shelves, chairs and solid oak office furniture.

And whatever you can't find in the store, Parkway will happily order from its 25,000-item catalogue, and can usually get it to you the very next day.

Open since 1969, Parkway operates under the age-old idea that "the customer is always right."

Attracting some 100 walk-in customers a day and about 2,500 commercial accounts, Parkway, located at 2118 S. Wayne Road in Westland, serves just about any customer's needs.
